

- Monday 12
DL THE MAN OF MODE or THE EARL OF ESSEX. Cast not listed.
COMMENT. Benefit Mrs Porter. By Their Royal Highnesses' Command.
[Theodosius advertized, but Booth's illness deferred it. Daily Courant lists The Man of Mode, but Rich's Register lists The Earl of Essex.]
- LIF THE DRUMMER. As 2 Feb. Also AMADIS. Cast not listed.
SINGING. With some Chansons a Boir, to be sung by Leveridge. Also a New Ballad call'd, The Faithful Mariner, after the Manner of a True English Sailor.
COMMENT. Benefit John Rich. At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.
Mainpiece: Written by the late Mr Addison. Receipts: money £92 12s. 6d.; tickets £37 10s.
- HAY ARLEQUIN HULLA. Cast not listed. Also CRISPIN RIVAL DE SON MAITRE.
Cast not listed.
MUSIC AND DANCING.
COMMENT. Benefit the Author. Mainpiece: Written by M Romagnezi.
- Tuesday 13
DL THE AMOROUS WIDOW. As 15 Dec. 1721.
DANCING. By Shaw, Denoye, Boval, Mrs Booth, Mrs Younger, Miss Tenoe.
COMMENT. The Briton intended for this day but deferred by Booth's Indisposition.
- LIF THE DRUMMER. As 2 Feb.
DANCING. By Lally, Pelling, Feild, Mrs Rogeir, Mrs Bullock, Miss Hutton.
COMMENT. Written by the late Mr Addison. Receipts: £19 13s.
- King's GRISELDA. Cast not listed, but see 22 Feb.
COMMENT. Admission as 9 Dec. 1721.
- Wednesday 14
DL CONCERT.
MUSIC. First Entertainment: 1. Concerto with Trumpets composed and performed by Grano; 2. A new Italian Concerto composed by Albinoni; 3. Singing by Mrs Barbier; 4. A Concerto composed by Carbonelli. Second Entertainment: A Concerto with Two Hautboys and Two Flutes composed by Dieupart; 2. Concerto on Bass Viol composed and performed by Pippo; 3. Singing by Mrs Barbier; 4. Eighth Concerto of Corelli. Third Entertainment: 1. Concerto composed by Carbonelli; 2. Solo on Arch Lute composed and performed by Viebar; 3. Singing by Mrs Barbier; 4. A New Concerto on Little Flute composed by Woodcocke and performed by John Baston; A Solo by Carbonelli; 6. A Concerto on Two Trumpets by Grano.
COMMENT. Benefit Carbonelli. Pit 5s. Gallery 2s.
- Thursday 15
DL THE CARELESS HUSBAND. As 11 Nov. 1721.
DANCING. By Shaw and Mrs Booth, particularly The Coquette Shepberdess, The Hussar, and The Harlequin.
COMMENT. Benefit Mrs Booth. At the Desire of several Ladies of Quality.
- LIF THE SPANISH FRYAR. Fryar – Quin; Torrismond – Ryan; Lorenzo – Walker; Gomez – Aston; Queen – Mrs Seymour; Elvira – Mrs Bullock. Also HANGING AND MARRIAGE; or, The Dead Man's Wedding. Cast not listed, but edition of 1722 lists: Goodman Gizzard – Bullock Sr; Richard Stubble – Spiller; Solomon Squeak – Phips; Jerry – Egleton; Mazzard – Hild. Bullock; Sprangle – Rakestraw; Countrymen – Morgan and Buck; Mother Stubble – Mrs Egleton; Betty Gizzard – Mrs Gulick. Epilogue spoken by Egleton and Spiller.
COMMENT. Afterpiece: [By Henry Carey.] A new Farce of one Act. Benefit Quin. Receipts: money £67 12s.; tickets £73 19s.