Victor (History of the Theatres, II, 152): I happened to be behind the Scenes the first Night of this Comedy, and was very sorry to find that the Audience did not take the Age, as well as the great Merit of this Author, into their Consideration, and quietly dismiss this last weak Effort to please them. When they were hissing dreadfully in the fifth Act, Mr Rich, who was standing by Mr Southern, asked him, if he heard what the Audience were doing? His Answer was, "No, Sir, I am very deaf."
