

- THE PERJUR'D PRINCE; or, The Martyr'd General: With the Comical Humours of Squire Calveshead, his Mother, his Sister Hoyden, and his Man Aminadab. Squire – Bullock; Hoyden – Mrs Willis. Saturday 24
BF
DANCING. Fingalian by Smith and Mrs Ogden.
 COMMENT. At Bullock's Great Theatrical Booth. The Cloaths are entirely New, as well as the Scenes, which are painted by an Excellent Artist.
- HERO AND LEANDER. Cast not listed. Also THE QUAKER'S OPERA; or, The Escapes of Jack Sheppard. Cast not listed. BF
 COMMENT. At Lee-Harper-Spiller Booth. Mainpiece: With all proper Decorations of Scenery, Machinery, &c. particularly the Sea where Leander was drown'd with Neptune, Tritons and Mermaids, floating. With the Comical Humours of Otter and Nurse. Afterpiece: [By Thomas Walker. Cast not listed in edition of 1728.]
- BATEMAN; or, The Unhappy Marriage: With the Comical Humours of Sparrow and His Man Pumpkin. Bateman – Oates; Sparrow – Miller; Old Sparrow – Hall; Earl of Essex – Boucher; D. Ambassador – Pitt; Old Booth – Giffard; Old German – Wetherhill; Pumpkin – Young Smith; Captain Slicer – Clarke; Queen Elizabeth – Mrs Chantrill; Anne – Mrs Buchanan; Ursula – Mrs Sherburn; Gossip Prattle – Mrs Wetherhill; Gossip Magpye – Mrs Morgan; Gossip Long-tongue – Mrs Man. BF
 COMMENT. At Hall-Miller Booth.
- THE BEGGAR'S OPERA. Cast not listed, by Posture-Masters. BF
 COMMENT. At Yeates' Booth.
- THE BEGGAR'S OPERA. Cast not listed. BF
 COMMENT. At Fielding-Reynolds Booth.
- For an essay on the difficulties of the opera, see Craftsman, 31 Aug. Saturday 31
King's

September 1728

- THE SPANISH FRYAR. Queen – Mrs Killby; Torrismond – Adams. With a new Prologue by Adams; and an Epilogue by Mrs Killby. Friday 6
HAY
 COMMENT. N.B. This is not the Company that play'd the Beggar's Opera.
- THE BEGGAR'S OPERA. Cast not listed. SF
 COMMENT. At Fielding-Reynolds Booth. [On 23 Sept. Miss Ward was announced as playing Polly.]
- THE QUAKER'S OPERA. Cast not listed. SF
 COMMENT. At Lee-Harper-Spiller Booth.
- THE ROYAL CHAMPION; or, St. George for England, Shewing how St. George in his Travels fell in Love with the beautiful Sabrina, Daughter to the King of Egypt, and slew a Monstrous Dragon that was to have Devour'd her, and also Kill'd the great Giant Demigorean: With the Comical Humours of Rumbelo. SF
Cast not listed.
 COMMENT. At Lee-Harper Booth.
- THE BEGGAR'S OPERA. By Posture Makers. SF
 COMMENT. At Yeates' Booth.