

- Wednesday 19*
DL. Once warn'd, I meddle not with state affairs;
But play my part, retire and say my pray'rs.
Let nobler spirits plan the vast design,
Our green-room swarms with longer heads than mine;
I take no part—no private jars foment,
But hasten from disputes I can't prevent;
Attack no rival brother's fame, or ease;
And raise no struggle, but who most shall please.
- United in ourselves, by you approv'd,
'Tis ours to make the slightest muse below'd;
So may the stage again its use impart,
And ripen Virtue, as it warms the heart.
May discord, with her horrid trump, retreat,
Nor drive the frighted Beauty from her seat;
May no contending parties strive for sway,
But judgment govern, and the stage obey.
