DANCING. III: A Comic Dance, as 21 Sept.

COMMENT. Miss Younge having been a Season in Ireland is now return’d play’d Well & was receiv’d with Great Applause (Hopkins Diary).

Potter, Theatrical Review: We must beg leave to point out a small error in her playing the part of Imogen; and which was too obvious to escape notice:—When Iachimo arrives from Italy . . . he is introduc’d to her by Pissanio who says . . . “Madam, a noble gentleman of Rome comes from my Lord with letters.” And Iachimo on his first appearance informs her, that “the worthy Leonatus is in safety.” These circumstances ought to awaken the highest joy and transport in Imogen, instead of which, we were sorry to observe, she dropped a solemn curtsey, and without one joyous feature said, with the utmost langor, “Thanks good sir, &c.” And even after she had read the letter . . . she addresses herself to him again with the same indifference.

Rec’d Mrs Groath, 1 yrs. Rent to Xmas last £3, and from Mr Atkins on Acct £5 5s.; Advanc’d Mr Barry, Box Office keeper £15; Ditto to Mr Watson, Box Office Keeper £10 (Treasurer’s Book). Receipts: £164 5s. (Treasurer’s Book).
